GENERAL CONDITIONS OF SALE/EXHIBITORS SPONSORS

The purpose of these regulations is to define the rules applicable to the admission and participation of exhibitors/sponsors in the CYNO-OPS 2024 seminar. This seminar is organized by the association "CYNOFAMILY74 - CYNO-OPS section" hereinafter referred to as "the Organizer" who reserves the right to modify or supplement these regulations without notice, in the interest of respecting the safety of people and property. The Organizer will inform the exhibitor/sponsor by any appropriate means.

• Conditions of participation

1. Signing the participation request constitutes a firm commitment.
2. Only applications that are fully completed, signed and accompanied by a deposit of payment of participation fees will be taken into account. In the event of withdrawal by the exhibitor/sponsor, this payment remains definitively with the Organizer.
3. Failure to pay the balance of the participation within the set deadline gives the Organizer, without prior notice, the right to refuse admission to the exhibitor/sponsor and/or results in the cancellation of the location of it. In all these cases, the total amount of the invoice is due to the Organizer.
4. The Organizer may refuse a request for participation without having to provide reasons for the request.
5. Only regularly constituted companies, organizations and associations may be admitted to exhibit at the seminar.
6. Subletting or free transfer to a third party of all or part of a stand is prohibited.

• Disclaimer

1. The withdrawal of the exhibitor-sponsor must be communicated by email as soon as possible.
2. In the event of cancellation, registration rights remain with the Organizer as follows:
  - Between the signing of this contract and September 1, 2024: reimbursement of the price
  - After September 1, 2024: billing of 50% of the price of participation as damages.

• Holding of the seminar, cancellation or modification

1. The Organizer sets the dates, location and times of the seminar
2. The Organizer reserves the right to postpone the event and change the times indicated, particularly in the event of force majeure or for any other reason which would require such modification. Each exhibitor/sponsor would be officially informed. The postponement of the event or the change of schedule cannot justify a total or partial cancellation of reservations by the exhibitors/sponsors.
3. The organizer may cancel or postpone the event if he notices a noticeably insufficient number of registrants. The registered exhibitor/sponsor will then be refunded the amount of their registration or participation. Until the closing day of registrations, the exhibitor/sponsor assumes all risks linked to the possible non-completion of the event and in particular the exclusive responsibility for the costs which he will have to incur in anticipation of the event.
4. The organizer may also postpone the event in the event of force majeure. Cases of force majeure justifying, at any time, the cancellation or postponement of the event include any situations that are not reasonably foreseeable, beyond the control of the organizer, which make it impossible to carry out the event or which involve risks of unrest or disorder likely to seriously affect the organization and smooth running of the event or the safety of property and people. In this case, the amounts paid by the exhibitors are fully refunded to the exclusion of any additional damages.
5. The Organizer is exempt from any liability concerning any damage that exhibitors/sponsors may suffer.

• Stand allocation

1. The Organizer establishes the plan of the show and distributes the locations freely, taking into account as far as possible the wishes expressed by the exhibitor/sponsor. The decision to admit or distribute stands cannot give rise to any compensation.
2. The Organizer will take into account in particular, within the framework of the attributions, the date of return of the files.
3. The exhibitor/sponsor will not be able to request cancellation or reimbursement or claim any compensation due to a modification of the plan and locations. 4. The organizer cannot be held responsible for slight differences which may be noted between the dimensions indicated and the actual dimensions of the location, nor for modifications occurring in the environment of the stands (modification of neighboring stands, reconfiguration of aisles ...)

• Obligations of the exhibitor/sponsor

1. It is not permitted for an exhibitor to host an unaffiliated company on his stand without the prior written consent of the Organizer.
2. Any admission definitively and irrevocably binds its subscriber who undertakes to strictly observe the provisions of these regulations, as well as the special regulations which will be sent to him in the exhibitor's file. Any breach of these regulations by the exhibitor/sponsor may result in exclusion, without the latter being able to request reimbursement of the sums paid or compensation of any kind whatsoever.
3. Exhibitors/sponsors undertake to only present products or materials that comply with French regulations, not to carry out any advertising likely to mislead or deceive the public and not to market any act of counterfeiting or unfair competition. The Organizer cannot in any way be held responsible if the Exhibitor/sponsor does not comply with this directive.
4. The Organizer may at any time demand that the disputed objects be immediately removed from the exhibition. Failure to comply with these obligations automatically results in temporary or permanent exclusion from the show.
5. The exhibitor/sponsors undertake, as far as possible, to participate in the preparation of a bag of goodies offered to each seminar participant

• Layout and decoration of stands

1. The particular decoration of the stands is carried out by the exhibitors/sponsors and under their responsibility.
2. Exhibitors/sponsors take the locations in the condition they find them and must leave them in the same condition. Any damage caused by an exhibitor/sponsor or by its installations, materials or goods is the responsibility of this exhibitor/sponsor.
3. The Organizer reserves the right to request modifications or remove an installation which would harm the general appearance of the show or which would disturb neighboring exhibitors or general traffic or which would not comply with the specific plans or projects previously submitted. .
4. Exhibitors/sponsors must respect the security regulations of the seminar venue appearing in the technical file.
5. The assembly and dismantling of the stands is carried out by the organization.
6. The Organizer may, after examination, exclude products or services that do not appear to correspond to the purpose of the show.
7. The products or services presented on the stands by exhibitors/sponsors must comply with current safety standards, particularly in terms of fire safety; the exhibitor/sponsor must ensure that all materials used, including dyes and carpets, comply with regulations, the Organizer reserving at any time the right to have any non-compliant material or installation removed or destroyed.

• Stand management

1. The stand must be permanently occupied during opening hours by a competent person. The exhibitor/sponsor must have an attitude consistent with the general interests of the seminar, particularly towards visitors and other participants.
  2. Any attitude detrimental to the smooth running of the seminar may result in a temporary or permanent exclusion measure by the Organizer in part or in total. 3. The exhibitor/sponsor undertakes not to dismantle his stand before closing
- Stand traffic remains the responsibility of the exhibitors. The stands must be ready to welcome the public on Wednesday 13 morning at 8:30 a.m. and cannot be cleared before Friday 15 at 1 p.m. Access to the stands for patronage will be available from Wednesday 13 at 6:00 a.m. As the show site remains open to the general public in the evening, exhibitors are asked to pack up the stands. The organization will not be held responsible in the event of theft if items remain on the stands.

• Advertisement

The exhibitor/sponsor may under no circumstances distribute leaflets or other documents outside of his stand or advertise a firm, brand, sign, etc. not exhibiting.

• Noise

Exhibitors/sponsors who plan entertainment (music, games, shows, etc.) on their stand must obtain prior authorization from the Organizer who will ensure their compliance with the spirit of the show and the absence of noise or noise pollution. visual. Failure to comply with these provisions may result, without notice, in cutting off the electricity to the stand of the exhibitor/sponsor concerned without the latter being able to claim any compensation from the Organizer. The exhibitor/sponsor undertakes to obtain all necessary authorizations for musical entertainment, and to handle any related payments, in particular to Sacem.

• Access to the lounge

1. No one may access the conference grounds without being in possession of a document issued or accepted by the Organizer. Only invitations issued by the Organizer are accepted as entry tickets. If by exception an exhibitor/sponsor wishes to create an invitation in the colors of their brand, they must first obtain authorization from the Organizer and submit their project. 2. The Organizer reserves the right to refuse entry or expel any person whose behavior harms the tranquility of participants.

• Security

1. Exhibitors/sponsors are required to comply with the regulations in force, in particular those concerning safety.

• Assurance

1. The Organizer declines all responsibility for damage of any kind that may occur to the goods exhibited for any reason whatsoever. 2. The exhibitor has custody of the exhibition materials and objects during the duration of the seminar, assembly and dismantling. The fact that the Organizer has its own security service does not imply its responsibility for the custody of these materials and objects.
3. The Organizer and the seminar venue will not be held responsible for losses or damages of any kind whatsoever, suffered by the exhibitor/sponsors, resulting from a defect in the building, which would be caused by the fire, thunderstorm, storm, lightning, civil disorder, attacks, war, union action, strike or lockout, explosions, accidents, force majeure, or any other unrelated cause under their control, the exhibitor/sponsor cannot, likewise, hold them responsible if, in circumstances of this kind, the conference is unable to use the building.
4. The exhibitor/sponsor undertakes to have insurance cover, for the total value of the location, the contents of its location as well as all related equipment and materials. 5. Exhibitors/sponsors must be covered by a civil liability insurance policy. Access to the location may be refused to any exhibitor/sponsor who cannot provide proof of prior payment of the insurance premiums they have taken out to cover their civil liability for damage caused to third parties.

• General provisions

The exhibitor/sponsor undertakes to respect current labor legislation and refrains from using undeclared workers.

• Dispute or litigation

In the event of a dispute, the search for an amicable solution will be preferred. In the absence of agreement between the parties within a reasonable time, the courts of the Organizer's head-quarters have sole jurisdiction.

I have read these general regulations and my signature constitutes full acceptance.
